

What areas are expected to be hardest hit economically as a result of global warming?

---

---

---

3) One of the economic concerns associated with responding to global warming is the impact that it might have on the economy. What are some of the options being proposed for businesses as they try to reduce their greenhouse gas emissions?

---

---

---

---

How are different countries trying to reduce the economic impacts associated with reducing greenhouse gas emissions on a national level?

---

---

---

4) How can an individual calculate his or her "carbon footprint"?

---

---

What are some of the economic choices that individuals can make to reduce their carbon footprint?

---

---

How do companies offset an individual's carbon impact?

---

---